FRENCH PREMIER IN DESPERATION OVER WAR DEBT

Briand Returns To Paris to Solve Difficulty or Quit Post.

EUROPE FACING CRISIS

Weakness of France Must Be Ended, Newspapers Declare.

(By the Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 12.—President Millerand today accepted the resignation of Premier Briand and his entire cabinet and indicated he would not ask any one to form a new ministry before tomorrow. Minister of War Barthou and former president Poincaré were mentioned prominently in parliamentary lobbies as likely candidates for the task of forming a new government.

President Millerand, according to custom, summoned the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies for a conference on the situation.

M. Briand presented his resignation after making a lengthy statement before the chamber of deputies justifying his attitude at the Cannes conference.

M. Briand intention to resign was announced at the close of his hour's speech. The announcement came as an entire surprise, and he had apparently won the sympathy of the chamber. His colleagues of the cabinet were filled with amazement at his sudden determination.

Leaves Chamber Alone.
M. Briand, after making his announcement, left the chamber alone. Members of the cabinet followed when they had recovered for their surprise.

Groups of deputies and government officials speedily gathered in excited discussion of the seriousness of the situation, seeking a way out of the difficulty.

Premier Briand put the Anglo-French pact, the question of post-punishment of Germany's reparation payments and French participation in the Genoa conference, squarely up to the chamber, telling the deputies in the bluntest terms to take them or leave them.

The premier first presented the question of the British pact.

"You have been complaining for three years," he said, "of not being called upon to share in the shaping of French policies. I am bringing you what you have been demanding for three years, and it is up to you to say whether you want it or not."

"As far as I am concerned," he continued, "I am merely making these explanations to you and do not ask your approval or refusal. Here is France's security. Take it or leave it."

France Must Be At Genoa.
The premier then turned to the subject of the Genoa conference.

"It is inadmissible," he said, "that France should be absent from this conference, which is purely financial and economical, especially when such a financial and economical state as United States, without whose co-operation work is impossible, has agreed to participate."

"Do you wish France not to be represented there?"

"If so, say so. I, for my part, wish France to take part."

Arms Conference Shocked.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The resignation of Premier Briand was received with almost bomb-shell effect in arms conference circles, the action being considered to have great effect on decision already reached or about to be reached.

The belief also was expressed in conference circles that the overturn of the Briand ministry would greatly effect the Genoa conference in which American participation is invited, and also the present conversations at Conference officials declared that as was customary in cabinet crises in France, the resigning cabinet would remain in power for continuing the administration work of the government and the same thing would apply in the case of M. Sarraut who will remain in Washington and will continue to attend to the work of the conference, but will not feel entitled to make any definite decisions or to pledge action of France on any question until the new cabinet is approved.

City Charter Under Fire In Case Testing Mayor's Right to Outdo $20 Fine

First of a series of cases which will test the validity of the city charter opened in county court this afternoon before Judge Tal Crawford when the A. V. Rupprecht, Frisco conductor of Sapulpa, went on trial, with the City of Ada as plaintiff, on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Rupprecht is alleged to have kicked a basket of sandwiches out of the hands of a boy vendor near the Frisco depot recently. He was found guilty the city court and fined $20 with costs aggregating $3.75. Under a recent ruling of the criminal court of appeals, city courts are not permitted to assess fines and cost totalling more than $20.

The city charter holds that the mayor's court may assess a fine as high as $100, including cost, without a jury hearing.

Big Principle Involved.
Although the case involves but a small amount of money, a big principle is wrapped up within its result, attorneys declared this afternoon. The defense, represented by Rowland and Carney, will maintain that when a state law and the city charter come into direct conflict, the city charter is null and void in that particular and the state law is supreme. There was a motion prepared shortly after noon today, ready to be introduced under this contention.

T. P. Holt, city attorney, while acknowledging the principle that in most cases state laws take precedence over conflicting city ordinances, declared he would present some radically different law, fresh from the supreme court, to substantiate his claims that the city charter is supreme in such a case as the one involved.

MARTIAL LAW IS PROCLAIMED FOR MEXIA DISTRICT

(By the Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 12.—Martial law at Mexia was proclaimed today by Governor Neff.

Martial law became effective at 5 o'clock this morning in the district known as Precinct 2 in Limestone county and Precinct 5 in Freestone county.

Brigadier General Walters of Houston will assume command at Mexia and has power to call on such Texas national guard forces as may be necessary to enforce the law.

Local officers at Mexia, the governor said, "are either unable or unwilling to maintain and enforce the law," and there is "imminent danger of insurrection, riot and breach of the peace."

No troops had been mobilized early today, it was said here.

PONCA CITY, Jan. 12.—Two women were reported to have been killed near Kaw City early today when officers had been warned to look out for a car alleged to be carrying liquor. A car was ordered to stop but it is said that the driver speeded on.

The officers gave chase and fired several shots into the ground, it is said, and then shot at the wheels of the flying car. One woman in the car was said to have been killed instantly and the other died in a hospital later.

Food Prices Lower

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Retail food prices in 16 principal cities of the United States decreased 12 to 18 per cent in the 12 months ending December 15 last, the bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor announced today. The bureau figures showed that prices prevailing last month in 13 of the cities from which 1913 statistics were available had increased since that from 33 to 59 per cent.

During the month from November 15 to December 15, 1921, 12 of the cities reported decreases in food prices, two reported increases, and two reported no change.

DEMOCRAT RALLY FRIDAY MAY SET NEW PARTY MARK

Women To Participate in

Precinct Officials To Represent
All Wings of The Party.

Democratic history will be made in Pontotoc county Friday afternoon and night, while it is being rewritten over the entire state, when precinct committee meetings will be held for the purpose of reorganizing "from the grass roots" up.

Mrs. Tom Hope, county chairman, repeated today her call to all members of the party over the county to turn out the biggest representation that has ever rallied under the democratic flag in this part of the state. Framework for this year's campaign will be laid at the various meetings.

Between 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, when outlying precincts of the county open their rallies, and late tomorrow night when city precincts wind up their meetings, enthusiasm is expected to be engendered for a heavy program of work and a complete organization will be constructed. Democratic leaders of the city and county were optimistic this morning over prospects for a record attendance at all meetings.

Complete Organization.
Tomorrow, by virtue of the Democratic state constitution, there will be elected a precinct chairman and vice-chairman, a secretary and treasurer and four members, two men and two women who shall constitute the precinct committee. These meetings are called for 2 o'clock Friday afternoon for all precincts outside of Ada and for 8 p. m. in the four Ada wards.

One of the new regulations regarding election of precinct officers is that the chairman and vice-chairman shall not be of the same sex. This is the first time in the history of the state that it is required that women be given places in the party councils. Heretofore this was optional.

"Now is the time to show your party loyalty," Mrs. Hope said this morning in her message to democratic voters in urging them to be present and take part in early campaign activities.

Democratic central committeemen for Pontotoc county are:

First Ward—Ada—John P. Crawford and Mrs. Tom Hope.

Thousands Rush to Mexia, Swelling It From Hamlet To City Under Oil Scare

(By the Associated Press.)
MEXIA, Jan. 12.—Overnight a tent city arose.

From apparently a sleepy little town of 3,000 inhabitants in October, 1921, where old settlers farmed for a living and eked a bare existence from their lands, where they rode cow horses to "town" and hitched them to hitching posts, and where even the town hall bell had not tolled for years because of cobwebs and bird nests—to a busy oil boom town of 30,000 inhabitants, all in a few months—this is the tremendous record of Mexia.

The place now consist of an assortment of oil field followers and thousands of men and women seeking employment, coming on trains from all parts of the United States, in wagons, truck or horse back, some bringing household and camping outfit and finding ten to a hundred for every job, and for every bed.

Fight for Beds.
If one man is lucky enough to get a room, hundreds of others were forced to sleep on the grass along the railroad track, public market places, or in fact any place they could find. One night a bed in a tent, marked "a place to flock to," soared from 50 cents a night to $3.

A night in a crude plank structure where one did not know his bedfellow or the hundreds of others in single rooms cost $5.

Railroad traffic jumped many fold. There are two trunk lines—the Houston and Texas Central, and the Trinity and Brazos Valley, leading through here and passenger traffic is very heavy, while frequently freight trains are seen running three abreast, bringing oil machinery.

Boys and Girls Working Hard on Question for State Debates.

With several boys interesting in debating and three young ladies, known in the local high school for their forensic ability, taking part in preparations for two debating teams, Coach John Whipple and his assistant, John Zimmerman, announce that first steps have been completed in organizing a debating club at the high school.

George Bowman, Harvey Faust, Frank Van Eaton, John Fleet, Manson Hawkins and Byron Roberts are leaders among the boys in the race for the team. Misses Dollie Gay, Emma Ruth Bolen and Kathryn Ruth Wilenzick constitute the girls' division of debaters. It is upon these students that the high school is placing responsibility of winning honors in two conference—the state debating conference and the southwestern debating conference in both of which the school is a member.

State Question Announced.
The state question this year is "Resolved: That the open shop policy should be adopted by the United States." Locally the girls have the negative side of the question and the boys are defending the affirmative side. Practice between these groups will be conducted in sectional debates. Preliminary debate at which the weaker schools of the conferences will be eliminated are to be held in March, it is understood. Ada high will be ready for them.

The best six local debaters will constitute two teams which will represent the local school in the two conferences. With the boys it has developed into a hard fight for superiority in the art of talking for a point. The girls are working to beat the boys. All the work will come under the direction of the history department of the school.

Two Women Are Dead
And Officer Seized
In Kaw City Affair

(By the Associated Press)
PONCA CITY, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Georgia Bouzma, wife of a Kaw City barber, and Mrs. Dick Skinner also of Kaw City are dead and a Kay county official is being held pending an investigation as the result of the double killing at 8:30 last night on the Kay City-Newkirk highway.

The two women were killed by shots fired by Deputy J. W. Finney while in an automobile, officers say, while he was trying to make the car driver stop, after he had been notified by Newkirk officials to watch for a booze car. Mrs. Bouzma was killed instantly and Mrs. Skinner died at 1 o'clock this morning.

Finney this morning went to Newkirk and is in custody of the sheriff pending investigation, it is said.

14 JURYMEN TO TRY FATTY MAY BE PICKED OUT

Two Alternates Will Sit So Verdict Will Not Be Prevented.

TASK WILL BE SLOW

Wife of Comedian Present
As Husband's Judges
Are Being Chosen.

(By the Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—That it will be a much more difficult task to secure a jury to try Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle a second time than in the first trial of the fat comedian for manslaughter as a result of the death of Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, following a gay Arbuckle party at the St. Francis hotel Labor Day, was evidenced when the job of picking the jury was opened in Judge Louderback's court. Only two jurors had been selected at noon yesterday.

Fourteen instead of the customary twelve jurors will be selected. This means that two alternates will sit throughout the trial to take the place of any jurors who may become ill. In the first trial there were thirteen jurors.

Mrs. Mary Nagle, 55, was the first juror examined who had not read of the case and formed an opinion. She was the eighth to be questioned. She was seated after lengthy examination, during which practically the same ground covered by attorneys at the first trial was gone over.

Nat W. Friedman, ninth talesman examined, also was tentatively passed.

Seven Are Excused.
The first seven talesmen examined were excused in rapid succession by consent of both sides among all developed violent attacks of "fixed opinions" based on newspaper articles they had read. In the first trial there seemed no desire on the part of the jurors to escape jury duty but today the attitude of the talesmen seemed to have changed.

When the case was called and the first twelve jurors were seated in the jury box, District Attorney Brady addressed the jury, announcing that he was proceeding on the grand jury indictment. He explained the manner in which that indictment had been secured and read the information.

Wife Is Present.
Attorneys then plunged into the task of examining the talesmen. More than once Judge Louderback interrupted to let the attorneys to develop further their questioning of the jurors as to their fitness. The panel had been reduced to forty-six from sixty-five by excusing nineteen, who had already served on juries during this term of court.

Arbuckle, dressed in the same blue sport suit he wore at the first trial, appeared in a cheerful mood. His wife, Minta Durfee Arbuckle, sat well back in the courtroom and seated beside her was Miss Marie Durfee, her sister, of New York.

Moderate Sized Crowd.
A moderate sized crowd was present when the trial opened, but the grand rush on the first trial was not repeated.

"We desire a representative jury," Gavin McNab, chief of the Arbuckle counsel, said today as court convened, "and the fact that it was a woman who prevented a verdict of acquittal at the first trial will not alter the policy we pursued on that occasion. Then we endeavored to secure six men and six women and if such a thing is possible in this trial, it will please us."

EXCHANGE BEGINS
CO-OPERATIVE HOG
MARKETING HERE

The Farmers Union Exchange began its co-operative marketing last week by shipping a car of hogs, 90 in number, to Oklahoma City. Fourteen men had an interest of from one to thirty hogs in the shipment. They were sold for 6.85. Deducting 80 cents for freight and other expenses the sellers realized 6.05 from the sale. Tuesday of this week another car of 87 was shipped but returns have not been received on these yet. The number of hogs turned in on this car was from one to twenty-one. Another car will likely be shipped in a day or two.

HIS PET TERRIER DIES

KROKUK, Ia., Jan. 12.—Seven year old Russell Mueller, is in a hospital with a self-inflicted bullet wound in his right thigh. He shot himself after his pet Boston terrier "Peggy" died yesterday. "I want to die too," the boy said to his mother, Mrs. Marie Mueller of this city.

High School students passing near the Mueller barn, attracted by the shot and the screams of the lad, rushed him to the hospital. He will recover.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
MERCY ASSURED:—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.—Proverbs 28:13.

THE NECESSARY NEWBERRY.

"How go a good yoke or bullocks at Stanford fair?" How goes a seat in the United States Senate? In 1907 Uncle Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin paid $107,000. In 1918 Truman H. Newberry of Michigan paid $263,000. The price of seats had more than kept pace with the general cost of living. Mr. Newberry swore in 1918 that his campaign had "been voluntarily conducted by friends in Michigan." He had not part in it, nor had any contributions been made or money expended with his knowledge or consent. That supreme aloofness of austere virtue is beautiful in theory. It commended itself to the majority of the Committee on Privileges and Elections. In the Senate today Mr. Newberry will have the opportunity to reconcile it with the evidence, with the records of his correspondence and conferences. Bodily absence in New York is hardly a moral alibi.

A primary state-wide election is necessarily expensive. The majority admits that too much money was spent, but all for "proper and legal purposes." Well, $140,000 or more was spent for publicity. That was needed, it is said, against an opponent of such unrivaled publicity as Henry Ford. Without going into the monstrous mass of evidence, it is enough to cite these remarks by Senator Kenyon, a Republican:

Senators could spend hours here reading the evidence of workers employed from the beginning of the campaign to the end, setting forth conversations, statements, lists of names showing the enormous number of people employed to buy influence. Members of traveling men's associations, lodges and labor organizations—the big workers—were to be secured, as King (Executive Chairman of the "voluntary committee") wrote to Newberry. Prosecuting attorneys in some counties received funds, which may account for the fact that there have been no prosecutions for violations of these Michigan laws. County Road Commissioners were corralled, because they travel around the counties. Luncheons and banquets were given and cigars distributed here and there and everywhere.

Bankers were secured for their influence; different nationalities were worked through lawyers of the nationality being employed; men were employed to line up the marines, fishermen, life-savers. Other sickening and disgusting practices were followed. Sealed envelopes and laid upon tables to be opened by the gentlemen with whom conversations were held; fifty-dollar bills were left under books on tables. The president of the Railroad Men's Relief association, with his monthly magazine, was brought around by advertisements; fraternal lodges were worked by various agents for stated stipends. The methods employed in conducting the campaign were corrupting and damning, and were calculated to undermine the Government.

Mr. Kenyon's indignation makes him forget the unique, overpowering moral exigency which made the election of Mr. Newberry indispensable to the masters of the Republican Party. A noble end, justifying all means, was to be served. In March, 1919, the Senate, with Mr. Newberry seated, consisted of 49 Republicans and 48 Democrats. Without him the Republicans couldn't have organized the Senate. Without him the Foreign Affairs Committee couldn't have been filled with irreconcilable enemies of the League of Nations. Without him Mr. Lodge couldn't have carried out that policy, so broad, farsighted and patriotic, that endears his name to a grateful people. Mr. Newberry was the savior of the situation, the rescuer of his party in the Senate, the humble instrument of mighty purposes, the man without whom the United States might have been dragged into the League of Nations.

Can any little irregularity, super-generosity; can even the strongest odor of corruption, make his campaign an election other than blessed and glorious in the eyes of the Senate Republicans to whom the League was the most evil thing in the world? What is a bit of evil to the sum of all evils? It is surprising that any Republican Senators should oppose the retention of Mr. Newberry. Gratitude should bind them. The cry of the weak-kneed seems to be: "Remember Lorimer!" It should be: "Remember the League of Nations!" We look with all confidence to the Republicans of the Senate to vindicate themselves and stick to the man who made their famous victory possible.—New York Times.

Men often scoff at public opinion, but finally the great majority have a very wholesome regard for it and act accordingly. The man who attempt to run counter to the public has a rough time of it and not many have the nerve to do it. Of course the world has had leaders who defied public opinion and finally won the public to their way of thinking, but these are exceptions. The average man is slow about braving the opposition of his fellows.

The farmers have been promised relief by the national law makers. They might rush the relief along, as most of us farmers could use a little extra cash.

"It Pays to Advertise."
(Muskogee Phoenix)

If Truman Newberry is guilty of the charges that have been preferred against him he should be ousted from the United States senate.

Whether or not he connived with his campaign committee in the bribery and the corruption that has been charged is not material. For after all, it is not Truman Newberry who is on trial. It is the manner in which he obtained his seat; if it were sold on the auction block to the highest bidder it is enough, he should go.

And yet, ugly as the charges may be, black as the record may appear, Truman Newberry is not receiving justice. It is unfortunate that cases of this kind must be made partisan issues, that sharp tongue orators, whose own tongues may be more too clean, should malign him because he is of the opposite faith. It is equally unfortunate that men, who secretly in their heart believe him guilty, should uphold him to serve a partisan purpose.

John Sharp Williams and the others are not so distressed as they would appear because a man has been elected to the senate through an unusual expenditure of money. They have seized upon a moment of extreme advantage. If Newberry remains Williams has thrown enough mud to besmirch the entire republican party, for it must be the republican party that will keep him. If he goes it is a republican senator less and the slander he has spread will not altogether be hushed.

We are not defending Mr. Newberry. No one could do that, nor could anyone accuse him, unless he had heard the evidence. There are many good people up in Michigan who believe him innocent, who would cast their ballots for him again and again.

We doubt if Mr. Williams would have waxed so eloquent upon the topic of expenditure of money had Henry Ford been successful. Yet Ford's friends spent almost as much as did Newberry's. Many are of the opinion they spent more. Everywhere Ford advertising leaped to the fore; money put the name of Ford on every lip. Ford was running for the senate. He possessed an unfair advantage; Newberry's friends used money to fight money. For no one believes that Henry Ford gained his prominence through his statesmanship. Money bought it for him.

The Newberry case then presents this question: How may a man, thoroughly capable to sit as senator but who has been content to keep to himself and not bill-board his name throughout the nation, compete with a man, wholly incompetent, but who through the use of money has put his name on every tongue? Must a man, who looks to a political future, begin years before to spend his money that he may be known?

The question does not excuse Newberry, but it does explain why his friends used the pocketbook so lavishly, and it presents a problem well worthy of consideration.

(Amarillo Tribune)

The average citizen would not doubt be greatly cheered if he could be assured that the new year would see a very substantial reduction in the "campaign" crop. Of all the aftermaths of the war, the campaign idea bids fair to become one of the most annoying. During the struggle against Germany it was discovered that the people were very responsive to the idea of campaigns and drives in the various war enterprises. During the war we got the campaign habit. It was useful and effective. Without these efforts our government would have been greatly hampered. The war is over, but the campaigns and drives are still with us. Many of them serve a very useful purpose, but along with the good ones come a vast array of campaigns that are simply the product of the mind of impractical reformers and uplifters. Not infrequently they are launched to provide employment for the campaigners and drivers who were developed during the war period. There is a vast army of people engaged in the business of regulating, reforming, revising and uplifting almost every human activity. The government itself has joined the procession and it may be put down as a dull day when there doesn't show up in the average community some agent of the government to tell us how to do something. The mails are flooded with propaganda, and about the only result that can come from a multiplicity of campaigns and drives is to cause the few really worth while movements to suffer from lack of support. The average person becomes so bewildered by the numerous appeals that after a while he will turn away in disgust at the first suggestion of a campaign. There is danger of freezing up a generous and noble impulse by this process.

What They Say

About the "Death Trap."
Editor Ada Evening News,
Ada, Okla.

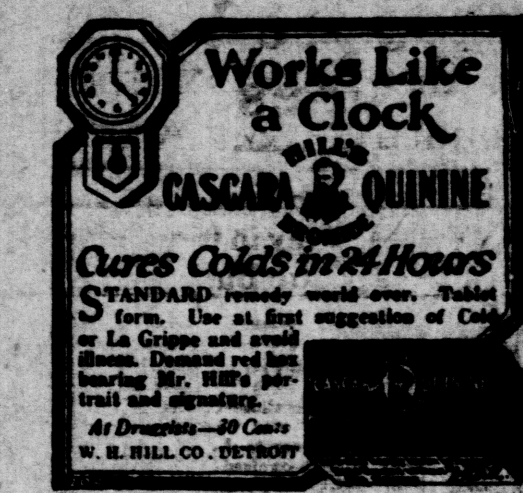

Dear Sir:—
While eating breakfast in Henryetta Saturday morning I was shocked to read in the paper of the deplorable accident in the 300 block on West 12th St. I moved to Ada ten years ago and located in the 300 block where I resided for six years. I regret to say that there has been from two to six accidents at this bridge every year for the past ten years, due to the condition of this bridge and the approach to it. It seems to me that Ada is too good a town to allow this to continue to remain a disgrace to the city and a menace to the property and lives of our good citizens when it would only take a few dollars to remedy it. Or is it possible that the citizens of this town have overlooked this death trap? If so, I trust you will call it to their attention that I may be attended to at the earliest possible moment.
Yours very truly,
GRANT IRWIN.

HIRE GOVERNMENT HELP

The civil service commission hires all employees in the classified service of the government. The only thing to be said about the classified service, is that it has not yet been classified. But you shall hear what the civil service commission has to say about hiring help, without comment from me.

There is an utter lack of definitely planned and well-organized employment policy in the government service.

There is need for a centralized employment office with jurisdiction in all matters relating to employment.

The employment methods of the government should be such as to serve for a model for private business.

There is at present no central control over the executive service short of the President. The President is a busy man and cannot concern himself with the details of the executive departments.

The lack of efficiency in government offices has a marked effect on private business.

Definite information concerning the number of federal civil employees in different branches of the service and the amount of the government payroll are not readily available.

An official register, or blue book, is issued every two years. It is out of date long before it is printed.

A provision of the civil service rules theoretically gives the civil service commission authority to collect and maintain complete personnel statistics. The labor and expense involved, however, practically prohibit the collection and compilation of reliable statistical data.

In addition to the limits of the commission's authority is the absence of authority to enforce its findings. The commission can make recommendations to the departments and offices and urge their observance, but it cannot enforce them.

Congress passed what is known as the civil service law January 16, 1883. This act created the United States civil service commission. The law was intended to cure in part the evils traceable to the spoils system, which grew out of the four-year-tenure-of-office act of 1820.

During the first 40 years after the organization of our government, administrative practice with regard to the civil service seemed to conform to the intention of the founders. The Constitution fixed the term of no officer in the executive branch of the government except those of the President and vice president. It was the established usage during these first 40 years to permit executive officers, except members of the cabinet, to hold office for an unlimited period during good behavior. The practice was changed in 1820 by the four-year-tenure act. The spoils system, as it was officially described as early as 1835, was introduced and extended until it permeated the entire civil service of the country.

The fundamental purpose of the civil service law was to establish, in the parts of the service covered by its provisions, a merit system whereby selection for appointment should be made upon the basis of demonstrated relative fitness, without regard to political, religious, or other such considerations.

The act requires that the rules shall provide, among other things, for open competitive examinations for testing the fitness of applicants for the classified service, the making of appointments from among those passing with highest grades, an apportionment of appointments in the departments at Washington among the states and territories, a period of probation before absolute appointment and the prohibition of the use of official authority to coerce the political action of any person or body.

In 1883, the year in which the civil service law was enacted, 13,924 positions in the civil service were made subject to competition. The entire number of positions in the federal executive civil service on June 20, 1916, was 480,327. At the height of the war expansion there were approximately 1,000,000 men and women employed in the federal executive civil service, about 700,000 of whom held positions subject to competition. On July 31, 1920, the entire number of federal executive civil positions, as nearly as can be estimated, had been reduced to 691,116. Approximately 450,000 of these were subject to competition, or, in other words, in the classified service. The force is still slowly but steadily decreasing.

During the 19 months of our participation in the war the civil service commission gave competitive examinations under the civil service law and rules to slightly less than 1,000,000 persons, and about 400,000 persons with tested qualifications were supplied by the commission to the service. A normal year's business is about 200,000 persons examined and about 50,000 appointed.

The famous Mayflower compact, vessel, will be commemorated in a signed by the Pilgrims in their bronze base-relief, which was set up in Provincetown, Mass., recently.

Deaf and Dumb Man Exhibits Rare Work in Wood Designing

Samuel E. Tong, Ada's master cabinet maker and mechanic, has again exhibited his work here. The exhibits include a cedar chest, decorated with inlaid wood, one is at the Shaw Department store and another, of more artistic design, at the Harris hotel. The one at the hotel was sold to a Dallas citizen who was visiting in the city last week. It is decorated with inlaid Masonic emblems.

Mr. Tong made a first exhibit of his work in the city when he completed a table decorated with wood designs representing an oil well and other features related to the industry. The table attracted considerable attention. He has since given most of his time to making chests, the cedar chest being his favorite design.

Friends of the man, who is deaf and dumb, have been urging him to start a cabinet factory here for the purpose of making inlaid cedar chests. He has not decided what steps he will take on the proposal. In case that he does, Mr. Tong expects to sell much of his products to out-of-town visitors.

Photographer Given Fine and Jail Term On Plea of Guilty

Jimmie Blumenthal, a traveling photographer, pleaded guilty this morning before County Judge Tal Crawford to a charge of developing pictures taken of an indecent exposure in a lodging house here, and was sentenced to three months in the county jail and a fine of $250 and cost. He will start his sentence today.

Two other persons, George Vouks and Penette Vouks, arrested on the original complaint of indecent exposure, had charges pending in the county court. Habeas corpus proceedings, instituted by the woman, resulted in the release of George Vouks from the county jail. The woman's case was taken under advisement and a decision is expected shortly.

TRACK SCHEDULE OF SOONERS NOW READY TO START

NORMAN, Jan. 12.—(Special) The Sooner's 1922 track schedule is complete with the exception of the meet to be arranged with the Oklahoma Aggies at Norman. The schedule opens March 25, the date of the indoor Missouri Valley conference meet at Kansas City, Mo., and closes May 27, at Lawrence, Kan., in the Missouri Valley outdoor all-conference meet.

The Sooners will take the best men they have from their squads, field and track, and send them to the National Collegiate Athletic Association meet to be held at Chicago, June 17, according to Ben G. Owen, director of Sooner athletics. "We are not sending a team to the Kansas City Athletic Club's indoor meet this winter because of the inadequate indoor training facilities we have in Soonerland which greatly handicaps the Sooners at Kansas City," Owen said, "but there is no reason why we should not send our best men to the national outdoor meet in the summer."

More than twenty-five veteran eligible track and field men answered Captain Bryan Griffin's call for indoor work Monday. Captain Griffin, J. D. McClure and Grover C. Jacobson will spend most of his time with the wrestling squad until early in April. McClure will carry on for Jacobson until he is ready to give full time to the team.

Sooner track schedule: March 25—All conference meet, indoors, Kansas City.

April 17—Kansas dual meet, at Lawrence.

April 27—Drake relays, at Des Moines.

May 13—Missouri dual meet, at Columbia.

May 17—All conference freshmen telegraphic meet.

May 27—All conference meet, out doors, at Lawrence.

June 17—National Collegiate Athletic association meet in Chicago.

Shuckare Sentenced and Penalty Delayed On Defrauding Plea

Gene Shuckare, who was bound over to the district court recently by Justice of the Peace W. H. Fisher, entered a plea of guilty this week to forgery in the second degree and was sentenced by District Judge J. W. Bolen to three years in confinement at the state reformatory at Granite.

Sentence was suspended and Shuckare released from the county jail on condition that he pay all parties whom he is alleged to have defrauded and upon his good behavior.

Shuckare was arrested here in company with a woman whom he is said to have exonerated from all blame in connection with a burglary and bad check charge filed against the two. The man, according to officers, admitted twice robbing the home of Norman Hatcher on East Ninth street and is said to have confessed to raising a $2 check to $20. He and the woman were arrested by county officers at Sulphur. Virginia Shuckare was released and sent to her home in Kansas several weeks ago.

CRIPPLED TROOP SHIP COMING ON

Transport "Crook" Labors Desperately To Gain New York Harbor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Wireless stations along the north Atlantic coast were awaiting with some concern tidings from the United States transport Crook, which reported by radio yesterday that she had sprung a leak and was in serious condition. Later dispatches from the captain of the vessel said that seams had been opened but that they had been calked and cemented. Anxiety over the ship was not wholly abated, for it was believed this morning she was still in the grip of the wintry gale that yesterday lashed the sea board and sent shippers to shelter.

Later reports from the Crook stated that the sea was calm and that the vessel was making 11 knots an hour on her way to New York, but so great was the concern felt by the war department that three ships were sent out to stand by the vessel.

Makes Some Headway.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A radiogram from the United States transport Crook received here at 8:30 o'clock this morning, said the crippled ship was making favorable headway. "The gale reached the transport last night," the message said, "but did not hamper our progress to a great extent."

The transport's position was given as 365 miles east of New York.

Mrs. Lincoln's Home is To Be Preserved As Her Memorial

Mrs. Mary Todd Lincoln, and her Lexington home as it looks today.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 2.—(Special)—The old home of Mary Todd Lincoln, at 574 West Main street this city, where she lived from early childhood until her marriage to the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln, will be purchased as a memorial to her and used as a museum for the exhibition and preservation of Lincoln relics, if plans of a group of public spirited Lexington citizens, recently announced, are realized.

The old Todd home, where Mary Todd lived as a girl and was courted later by Abraham Lincoln, is now occupied as a boarding house for railroad employees and a soft drink stand. It has been recently thrown on the market, and the site is being sought for business purposes by persons who wish to tear down the house. The property is owned by T. N. Arthur, proprietor of the soft drink stand.

The building is in an excellent state of preservation, and the picturesque quaintness of the interior has not been effaced by the several partitions installed by the present owner, but which may be easily removed. The historic rooms, where Mary Todd spent her happy childhood, have undergone no change.

Birthplace Has Been Razed. While the original Lincoln farm at Hodgenville, Ky., and the cabin in which the martyred president first saw the light of day have been acquired for the nation as a sacred shrine at the cost of more than $1,000,000, the part that Mrs. Lincoln had in preserving the nation has not been generally recognized, and the house in which she was born has been destroyed, only part of the old foundation remaining as the basis for another home at 501 West Short street, Lexington.

An option has been obtained on the property, and several civic and historical clubs here have become interested in the purchase, either by local subscription or a nationwide appeal, such as was made for funds to buy the Lincoln birthplace. Several of the civic clubs of Lexington, among them the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lion, Pyramid and Optimist clubs, have recently adopted resolutions favoring the purchase and the conversion of the home into a historic shrine and museum, and an effort is being made to have the John Bradford Historical Society here sponsor the movement for raising the necessary funds for the acquisition of the property. The owner asks $14,000, according to the option just taken, and it is estimated that it would cost from $6,000 to $10,000 to restore and equip it.

Inquiry has developed the fact that there is considerable furniture owned by the Lincolns while they occupied the White House, pictures, letters, manuscripts and other relics of the Todd and Lincoln families now in the possession of relatives of Mrs. Lincoln and other families now living in this city and vicinity, and it is planned to procure these and place them in the home, which would be under the administration of one of the local historical societies.

Lincoln Sold It in 1856

There is now a deed on record in the Fayette county clerk's office here, showing that on June 18, 1856 Abraham Lincoln and his wife, Mary Todd Lincoln, and others conveyed the property to Benjamin F. Edge to settle the estate of Robert S. Todd, deceased. Robert Todd bought the property May 17, 1832, from William Palmateer, and it was conveyed to the present owner, T. N. Arthur, June 30, 1920, by John Gund, former president of the Lexington Brewing Company, who acquired it several years ago.

Plans for the ceremonies attending the dedication, if the home is purchased and converted into an historical shrine, would include, according to those behind the movement an invitation to Robert T. Lincoln, son of the martyred president, and Mrs. Ben Hardin Helm, sister of Mrs. Lincoln, who is now a resident of this county, and who has in her possession many valuable relics of the Lincolns, which she has signified her willingness to place in the proposed memorial building.

BALFOUR LEAVES FOR HOME JAN. 14

Head of Britain's Arms
Delegates Announces
Sailing Date.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Definite decision has been made by Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British arms conference delegation, to sail for home January 14. He will be accompanied by Lord Lee of Fairham, first lord of the British admiralty leaving Sir Auckland G. Edes, British ambassador, here to wind up any remaining conference matters.

The decision announced by a British delegation spokesman was interpreted as a further indication of the early conclusion of the conference.

In British circles today it was said that much further progress in the settlement of far eastern questions was not to be expected inasmuch as the conference had clearly indicated its adherence to the general principles acted upon in the four Root resolutions.

Some adjustments already have been made under those resolutions, such as a principle for the gradual abandonment of extra territorial jurisdiction in China and for foreign postoffices in China, for at least limited withdrawal of foreign troops from Chinese territory, and provision for an increase of the Chinese customs tariff.

Beyond these matters, the British spokesman said, it was not expected the conference would proceed. A treaty will be drawn up embodying the Root principles which all the powers party to the conference are to sign.

STATES ASKED TO HELP SPREAD PEACE DESIRE

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—In an effort to "prevent public apathy" on world peace after the close of the Washington conference, the national council of limitation of armaments today announced it had written the governors of the 48 states asking support in "educating public sentiment during the coming years for the next step towards permanent peace, and that 13 of affirmative replies already had been received.

NETHERLANDS TO PARTICIPATE IN CABLES AT YAP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Prediction whereby the Netherlands as well as the United States and Japan are to be given cable rights on the island of Yap was agreed to today by the heads of delegations of the five major powers in the Washington conference and of the Netherlands.

Great Britain and Italy accepted the arrangement with reservations, the former indicating that British interests might also desire in the future to have certain rights on the island. Italy claims an interest in one of the three exchange cables that touch the island.

The tentative draft of a six power treaty that had been negotiated regarding Yap was submitted to the plenipotentiaries at today's meeting. The treaty was not signed, the delegations beginning without definite instructions on the subject.

27,000 CANADIAN SOLDIERS HELPED

Government Loans Giant
Sums to Put Veterans
At Ease Again.

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Twenty-seven thousand Canadian soldiers have been settled on farms by the Canadian government and $85,000,000 have been loaned to these men by their government, according to a letter sent to the Horse Association of America here by John Barnett, chairman of the Soldiers Settlement Board of Canada.

"Aggregated roughly this means that we have placed a population of 251,000 people on these lands," he said.

"Our settlers have been settled partly on free Crown lands, and partly on lands purchased by this board and resold to them. In no case has a settler been required to possess more than $500. We have, therefore, advanced practically the full purchase price of the lands we have bought, and in addition have advanced up to $3,000 for permanent improvements, such as buildings, fencing, etc., and stock and equipment.

"The risk is necessarily great, but has been taken largely as a re-establishment venture.

"We have been in operation over three years, and the national results are already very great. Some 600,000 acres that were previously raw and entirely uncultivated, have been brought under cultivation. Last year soldier settlers produced field crops worth easily $15,000,000 to which must be added the value of the increase in stock and the value of poultry and dairy products."

Big Percentage Returned. "Out of the $85,000,000 already expended, $10,000,000 has been returned to the public treasury. Of due payments, more than 90 per cent was paid.

"Thus far, the number of men who have abandoned their efforts represents 7 per cent of our aggregate settlement. In the cases of abandonment, and despite the collapse in markets, we have salvaged and foreclosed more than 500 cases representing an investment of more than $2,800,000 without any financial loss.

Mr. Barrett in his letter mentions that the power furnished these farmers has, in a great majority of the cases been horses, preferably mares. He says:

"JAZZ" MUSIC SINGING SWANSONG IN PLACES WHERE LIGHT FANTASTIC IS TRIPPED, DANCING MASTERS ASSERT

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—"The Jazz" is slowly but surely being into the discard, according to a statement issued here by the Ponton Belt, of Dayton, O., Director of Dance Reform of the American National Association, Masters of Dancing. "The 'Fox Trot' is the dance that receives the most abuse by the dancer," said the statement, "and it is the 'Fox Trot' music as written and played in 'Jazz' fashion, that causes the dancer to abuse this popular dance. There is nothing wrong with the 'Fox Trot' or the steps in the 'Fox Trot', but it is a conceded fact among all teachers of dancing that the Oriental suggestiveness and broken time in the Fox Trot Jazz music, together with the lack of sufficient supervision, is responsible for the downward trend of the dance.

"The American National Association of Masters of Dancing began two years ago, to work for cleaner dancing. Hundreds of welfare associations, thousands of college deans, police women everywhere and finally the public dance hall proprietors are listed in the work with us.

We all feel and hope that the crest of the wave of this disgusting wriggling 'Jazz' has been reached and reports to us from every part of the country show 'clean dancing' crusades being started everywhere. "All exaggerated movements, especially of the upper parts of the body, are in very bad taste in social dancing, and are never found with true refinement and culture." Nine don'ts are given in the statement. They are:

"Don't permit vulgar jazz music to be played.
"Don't permit young men to hold their partners tightly.
"Don't permit partners to dance with cheeks close or touching.
"Don't permit 'neck holds'.
"So-called 'shimmy' dancing should not be tolerated.
"Don't permit dancers to take either exceptionally long or short steps.
"Don't dance from the waist up; dance from the waist down.
"Don't permit suggestive movements.
"Don't permit dancers to copy the extremes that are now used on the modern stage."

NAVY LIMITING TEATY LOOKED FOR THIS WEEK

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Despite the New Year's holidays, naval experts of the arms conference delegations kept at work today on their task of ironing out details of the naval limitation plan and putting it in treaty form by the end of the week.

With no serious difficulty expressed on formulating a tentative adjustment, to come or such questions as replacement and scrapping of ships, there was a general feeling today that the end of the week may see another plenary session of the conference announcing a formal five power treaty covering the naval limitation scheme.

With this program for final disposition of the naval program, there was a general expectation among delegations that in the following week, a settlement covering the far eastern field would be affected, permitting the conference to adjourn about the middle of the month.

India's Free State To Abolish Liquor, High Officers Say

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Suppression of the drug and liquor traffic has been announced as one "of the first reforms of the United States of India," proclaimed yesterday, according to a statement issued today by Sallendra N. Ghosh, director of the American commission to promote self government in India.

Mr. Ghosh declared that within the last month 70 percent of the opium shops and 60 percent of the liquor shops in India had been closed. "In districts where the provisional government is functioning," he added, "drugs and liquors can only be obtained for medicinal purposes." Mr. Ghosh said that revenue from the liquor traffic, from which Britain "derives an income of many millions," was cut off by the decree.

Poultry Show Due To Open Thursday With Big Entries

The annual show of the the Pontotoc County Poultry Association will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The building on Twelfth street recently vacated by Walker's furniture store has been secured for the show and entries may be made at any time this week up to Thursday noon.

The promoters are confident that this show will eclipse all former ones of the kind held here. There has been a marked increase in interest in raising pure bred birds in the county during recent years and a corresponding improvement in the stock. More people than ever are taking an interest in the exhibit, according to Lute Douge, the secretary.

Eastern ring critics are now discussing young Joe Benjamin as the latest lightweight sensation—the newest "man who may wrest Leonard's crown." Benjamin's recent victory over Pete Hartley drew attention to him. He showed his class as a boxer previous to that in several battles which included victories over the slugging Joe Welling and Benny Valger, the "French" flash from the east side of New York.

TO DARKEN HAIR

APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

C. OF C. PLUNGES INTO ACTIVITIES AMNESTY GIVEN ENGLAND'S FOES

Meeting of All Members Will Be Held Friday Night for Work. King George Is Merciful To Political Enemies Within Ireland.

At a general meeting of members of the Chamber of Commerce, in the C. of C. rooms, Friday night at 7 o'clock, a constitution and by-laws, drawn up by a committee of five, will be presented for adoption. Members of the committee are J. F. McKee, F. E. Bowman, M. F. Manville, Arel Busby, and J. A. Smith.

A good representation of members at the meeting has been asked by officers of the organization and by William F. Miller field secretary of the Bureau of Organization, Chicago, who has been sent here to clean up on work started by two advanced representatives of the Bureau several weeks ago. All details of the C. of C. organization will be explained at the meeting.

The session will be closed in time for Chamber of Commerce members to attend democratic precinct meetings if they so desire, Mr. Miller promised.

Today's program at the C. of C. was to be marked by a meeting of six group leaders, A. L. Fentem, Walter Wray, M. O. Matthews, F. L. Finley, A. Linscheid, and W. E. Harvey, at 4 p. m. It is the duty of group leaders to preside over the six divisions of membership and hold meetings at which the members themselves will work out their own line of activity. A questionnaire containing two queries: (1) How can the Chamber of Commerce assist your particular business, and (2) How can the Chamber of Commerce work for the betterment of Ada?

Each member, in a meeting of the group of which he is a member, will indicate orally and in writing the things that the Chamber can do to improve general conditions of the city. These suggestions will be filed under the names of their authors and will form an invaluable record, it is intended, for the appointment of committees. Suggestions that are made oftenest in answers to the questionnaire will form a program which the C. of C. is pledged to attempt to carry out. Suggestions made less frequently will be thrown into a forum group and there sifted down in general discussions to be held by the entire membership at various times. One of these forum discussions will be held about February 3.

FRENCH PREMIER IN DESPERATION

(Continued from Page One) council at Cannes, to co-operate in the organization of the Genoa economic conference, has been declined by the supreme council, acting on the suggestion by Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, it was announced here today.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Premier Briand arrived from Cannes today. The premier, recalled to explain the results of his negotiations with Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, was to present the text of the Anglo-French defense pact to a cabinet meeting at Elysee Palace today. His course after the meeting is uncertain, but the best political opinion is that he will do one of two things—throw out the situation in public debate in parliament or resign.

Europe in Balance. The fate of the French government today rests not only on the fate of the policy of France but perhaps Europe itself, it was believed here. French opinion, both that opposing M. Briand and that favoring him, is unanimous that, in the words of the Le Petit Journal, "the crisis of unrest which weakens the position of France in regard to both her allies and her former enemies, must be ended."

The newspapers point out that Sunday is January 15, the date on which Germany is due to pay $500,000,000 in gold marks in reparations. "If Germany fails to meet her obligations," Le Journal says, "and if between now and then no moratorium has been accepted by the French, there must be a resolution to safe-guard the rights of our country by putting in force the clauses of the treaty of Versailles."

German Delegates Received. CANNES, France, Jan. 12.—The German delegation, headed by Dr. Walter Rathenau, was received by the allied supreme council this morning. The reparations commission reported that last night's conference with the Germans had been without results.

Dr. Rathenau was before the reparations commission for three hours last night to explain Germany's request for postponement of reparations payments. He made no new offer on behalf of his government, merely outlining the German condition previously made known and protesting the good faith of his government.

He pointed out that the trade balance was against Germany, making purchase of foreign currency difficult, and that intensified production was the only solution of her difficulty, but this was blocked by the customs barriers created by the allies.

OFFICERS ENTER STOUT DENIALS OF EXECUTIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Repeated denial that more than two military executions at Is-Sur-Tille, France, during the American occupation of that town as a military center, was entered today before the senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers had been hanged without court-martial. Former officers who served at Is-Sur-Tille in various capacities flatly contradicted testimony given by soldiers who had appeared at earlier sessions of the committee, declaring under exception that had other executions occurred, they certainly would have been informed as a matter of routine official business.

The members of the committee, the Irish internment camp were released in December.

AMES, CHAIRMAN OF WILSON AWARD FOR OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma is to have a leading part in the movement to honor former President Woodrow Wilson and to perpetuate his ideals through the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. Judge Charles B. Ames, of Oklahoma City, as state chairman, is perfecting plans for the opening, on January 16, of a campaign through which will be raised this state's share of an endowment fund of at least $1,000,000. The income of this fund will be used by the Foundation to make periodic awards to the "individual or group that has rendered, within a specified time, meritorious service to democracy, public welfare, liberal thought or peace through justice." Associated with the chairman in this work are many of the state's most prominent men and women.

The idea of establishing a Foundation to perpetuate the ideals of the former President originated among a group of women who met at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, of New York, Christmas, 1920, and was expanded through conferences with the friends of Mr. Wilson. Under the direction of Franklin D. Roosevelt, chairman of the National Committee of the Foundation and Assistant Secretary of the Navy under President Wilson; Cleveland H. Dodge, chairman of the Executive Committee and classmate of Mr. Wilson at Princeton; and Hamilton Holt, executive director, organization of the Foundation throughout the United States has been practically completed. January 16 has been designated as the date when subscriptions to the fund will be taken. In the meantime substantial subscriptions are being received at national headquarters, 150 Nassau Street, New York.

When the fund has been raised it will be invested in securities of the United States Government or in other approved trust fund securities and will be under the management of a Board of Trustees to the number of fifteen nationally representative men and women, who will disburse the income annually to the Jury of Awards. The awards will be comparable in significance to the Nobel Prizes. Headquarters for Oklahoma have been opened at the Bristol Hotel, Oklahoma City.

TRAMPS, COOKING FOOD

MUSKOGEE, Jan. 12.—Damage estimated at $10,000, covered by insurance, was done by fire to the building and contents of the Oklahoma Rig and Supply company here early today. Tramps seeking to keep warm or cook food in the building are believed by the owner to have been responsible for the blaze.

EXCITEMENT IS LURE TO CRIME OFFICERS AVER

Crime is not always a disease. Neither is the one who commits crime always a confirmed criminal nor the offspring of a family whose bent is toward criminal tendencies. This is what local officers hold as the result of investigation and experience recently with law violators, many of whom are showing of late unusual characteristics, if is said.

Despite the fact that in most instances "honesty is the best policy," there is a decided lure to a career of crime that is not due to inherited wickedness, moral perversity or force of circumstances which arise from our social system, criminal experts have declared. Scientists now recognize it is due to a pathological craving for excitement, and is indirectly caused by a weakened nervous system.

Idleness Blamed. Difficulty in finding employment by which they can earn an honest living is now leading a small percent of the alleged criminals into the courts, local officers said today. One man arrested here recently, after entering a plea of guilty to burglary, said he did it to get a "square meal." Others admit that they break the law only to get excitement and thrill.

The rich society woman has the means of satisfying her craving for excitement in other fashions, but she sometimes joins the criminal class. To the poor the craving for excitement cannot be gratified without money and sometimes crime is deemed the easiest way for this, plus the added inducement of material gain.

It is claimed that in many places late dances, jazz music and a score or more of different fads lead in their wake diseased nervous systems that are susceptible to the craving for excitement and for crime.

The new science of psycho-analysis is also being used in the detection of crime. A suspected man is asked a considerable number of questions, most of which have nothing to do with the crime. The time which he takes to reply to each is carefully measured by means of a stop-watch. If he shows marked hesitation whenever questions of a certain kind are put, the investigator knows that he is on the right track, and follows up his advantage.

Sometimes use is made of an extremely ingenious little machine, which measures variations in the pressure of the blood. The stop-watch may show nothing at all, for a hardened criminal on his guard is very difficult to catch; he will answer all questions with equal readiness. But his pulse gives him away.

Telling the Truth?

Everyone knows what an effect any form of excitement or of nervousness has upon the heart. Under their influence the heart beats—only for a moment perhaps—more rapidly, and the blood pressure rises.

The sphygmomanometer, as the instrument is called, registers even the tiniest variation, enabling the investigator to see just which questions or suggestions produce nervousness. It is claimed that by its aid a skilled operator can always tell whether his subject is lying or telling the truth.

And so by making very use of the services of all branches of science, the forces of law and order maintain an ever-tightening grip upon the enemies of society. A small proportion may escape the consequences of their wrong-doing, but on the whole the number of untraced criminals is a small one. It is continually growing less.

SALE OF TREASURY CERTIFICATES FOR MONTH ECLIPSES 1921 TOTAL

Treasury certificates, recently issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000, may be secured at the local postoffice, according to Wilbur Lee, assistant postmaster, who is in charge of selling certificates here.

These certificates, costing $20, $80, and $800 respectively mature five years from the date of issue and at that time are redeemable at face value. The rate of interest on the money invested is about 5 percent and the certificates are issued to encourage saving.

The legal limit has been raised from $1,000 to $5,000, according to Mr. Lee. It is not lawful for any person at any time to hold certificates of annual series to an aggregate amount exceeding $5,000 maturity value, he says.

Sale 1921 Securities Ends. Sale of all $100 and $25 treasury savings certificates of the 1921 series, $5.00 war savings stamps; 25 cent thrift stamps and proprietary revenue stamps in postoffices was recently discontinued by order of the department at Washington, Mr. Lee said.

All of these certificates on hand at the local postoffice when the order went into effect have been returned to Washington. One dollar savings stamps were not affected by the order and are still being offered for sale at the postoffice.

There will be no war savings stamps on sale at the postoffice during the year 1922, Postmaster

General Hays recently advised the local office. Thrift stamps outstanding will now be received at face value on account of the purchase of new issue treasury savings certificates and treasury savings stamps or, at the option of the holder, will be redeemed at face value by the postmaster in cash, it was announced.

Already more certificates have been sold this month than the entire year of 1921, it is reported. Money that has been kept "salted down" is being brought out and put in government postal certificates, which puts the money in circulation, it was pointed out. The local authorities expect that the amount sold this year will establish a record for the Ada office.

Postmaster J. W. Westbrook recently received the following letter from John T. Wayland, director of the government savings organization, tenth federal reserve district, Kansas City:

"With the recent steady advance of all issues of Liberty bonds to a price where a few of them pay more than 4 1-2 percent simple interest, when carried to maturity; and the further fact that if owners should desire to sell them they must go into open market to do so, the savings certificates which pay 4 1-2 percent interest, compounded semi-annually, and have a guaranteed cash surrender value of 3 1-2 percent accrued interest added if cashed before maturity, makes them the most attractive security obtainable."
